For people with a mind to travel

For those who know Swan Hellenic, a cruise aboard Minerva is the ultimate in well-planned and meticulously executed discovery cruising. This British company has perfected the art of small ship discovery cruising to a point where every cruise delights, surprises and satisfies curious minds – and where you can be assured of travelling in comfort and style, backed up by high standards of service from friendly staff in our two UK offices and on board Minerva.

A Swan Hellenic cruise also represents excellent value for money, with so much included in your cruise fare:

- Flights to and from Minerva (where applicable)
- A considered, tailor-made itinerary to fascinating ports of call that includes evenings in port and overnight stays
- An integrated programme of shore excursions
- A stimulating programme of Guest Speaker talks
- A Swan Hellenic onboard team to ensure that each day of your cruise lives up to expectations
- All gratuities on board and ashore
- All port and airport taxes

Minerva is a small ship, carrying around 320 like-minded passengers, in a congenial country house environment.

In 2010, Minerva's destinations include the Mediterranean, Red Sea and Black Sea, a programme of 'No-Fly' cruises in the Northern Waters from Dover, Arabia, the Middle East and returning to the Far East for Christmas. 2011 see's Minerva returning to her roots, offering in-depth cruises to the Hellenic world, visiting some of the major sites such as the royal tombs of Vergina and the monasteries of Meteora, but also some smaller, less-visited Greek islands such as Lesbos, Chios, Melos, Symi, Delos and Kos. Minerva will also make a complete circuit of the Black Sea. New for 2011's programme of 'No-Fly' cruises, Minerva's home port will be Portsmouth, offering the most convenient facilities, with an excellent infrastructure of travel connections to all parts of the UK and further afield.
