Experience the art of discovery cruising with Swan Hellenic

Minerva's Summer 2011 season blends the 'must see' sights of the Mediterranean, Northern Europe, The Black Sea, North Africa and the Levant with smaller, 'off the beaten track' destinations such as St Kilda in Scotland and Rovinj and Pula in Croatia. Our season of 'no fly' summer cruises around the UK, to the Baltic, Iceland and Norway now depart from the historic naval city of Portsmouth; with purpose-built facilities and excellent travel connections, there is no finer way to begin your cruise. Minerva's fascinating winter 2011/12 itineraries include a return to Myanmar (Burma), a cruise in The Gulf calling at Bahrain and ports in the UAE, while also sailing to India, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia and the Philippines.

Our inclusive tailor-made shore excursions programme seeks out the highlights of each country visited, while our renowned Guest Speakers' talks explain the past and illuminate the present.

Travel in country house style, with around 320 like-minded passengers, enjoying the freedom of dining in the restaurant of your choice. Be assured of excellent value for money, including tailor-made shore excursions and all gratuities on board and ashore. Travel with a renowned British company, established in 1954, and enjoy an experience that will live with you forever.

Alternatively, discover the heart of Europe with Swan Hellenic's exciting choice of river cruises to the Rhône, Danube and Rhine, travelling on A-ROSA's superior fleet of river cruisers.
