I enclose your copy of the latest Swan Hellenic Journal which features news and offers on our cruise itineraries for 2011, supported by Guest Speaker articles, highlighting some of the fascinating destinations Minerva will be visiting in the year ahead.

Cruises for 2011 selling fast

I am pleased to report that Minerva is fully sold until 11 May 2011 and many of our autumn dates are already limited in availability, with cabins for winter 2011/12 in the Far East selling out fast. The introduction of Portsmouth as Minerva's new home port for our series of no-fly summer cruises has also been enthusiastically received and we are looking forward to our first sailing from Portsmouth in June 2011 when the Band of HM Royal Marines Portsmouth will be on the quayside to play Minerva out.

See the world from a different point of view

If you have travelled with us before you will know that our eminent Guest Speakers' talks – which range across subjects from archaeology to modern history – give unique insights into the countries and sites visited on each carefully planned itinerary. This Journal features some of the Guest Speakers who will be travelling on Minerva in 2011. These articles, together with details of our forthcoming entertainment programme, give a flavour of what you could experience on board.

Save 10% on selected spring cruises

We are pleased to extend a special offer on three of our late spring cruises around the Mediterranean – An Italian Serenade, A Mediterranean Palette and Rivers and Vineyards, where we are offering 10% off selected cabin grades, subject to availability. Please see pages 4-5 for the full details. These offers have limited availability and so we strongly recommend booking quickly to take advantage of these savings.
